SOUTH OAKLAND CONCERT BAND PRESENTS CITYSCAPES, AN AURAL PANORAMA OF THE CITY

Royal Oak, Mich. February 16, 2009 – The South Oakland Concert Band (SOCB) presents “Cityscapes,” a concert exploring the aural panorama of the city, at 3 p.m. on March 8 at the Royal Oak High School Auditorium. Admission is $10 for adults, $8 for seniors, and children 12 and under are free.

Come join the SOCB on an audio journey to New York City, Paris, Rome, Chicago, and more with classic masterpieces, contemporary rock, and stately marches, all celebrating the urban landscape. SOCB’s performances always feature professional programming at family-friendly prices.

This concert also highlights the Woodward Avenue Jazz Orchestra, with special guest guitarist, Kris Kurzawa, a private instructor who performs with Trio Organic and The Kris K Band. The newly formed Woodward Avenue Jazz Orchestra has expanded its repertoire and is now available for private parties and special events.

The South Oakland Concert Band is a non-profit, volunteer organization, entertaining south Oakland County since 1963. The group is directed by Jim Conaton, former band director at Kimball High School. Please visit our website at www.socbmi.org.
